

Seminar Series from the Food Research Institute

Spring 2008 Revised Schedule

Date	Title	Presenter
2/20	“Cheese Nonstarter Lactic Acid Bacteria: What Are They, Why Do We Care, and How Do They Grow?”	Jim Steele, PhD Professor, Food Science, UW-Madison
3/5	“Biological and Genetic Technologies for Aflatoxin Prevention”	Thomas “Ed” Cleveland, PhD Research Leader, Food and Feed Safety, Agricultural Research Service, USDA
3/26	“Enhancing Food Safety Education Through Shared Teaching Resources”	Jeannette McDonald, DVM, PhD Faculty Associate, School of Veterinary Medicine, UW-Madison
4/9	“Epidemiological Causation Criteria: How Strong is the Diet/Cancer Linkage?”	Andrew Milkowski, PhD Adjunct Professor, Muscle Biology Lab, UW-Madison
4/23	“Using Salmonella to Understand Metabolic Complexity”	Diana Downs, PhD Professor, Bacteriology, UW-Madison
5/7	“Chlorate Dramatically Decreases Salmonella Shedding in Pigs; A Novel Application for a Table Salt Derivative” [rescheduled from Feb. 6; Sophia Kathariou postponed until fall 2008]	Peter Bahnsen, PhD Assistant Professor, School of Veterinary Medicine, UW- Madison

Wednesday, 11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. noon faculty meeting room, 6th floor Microbial Sciences
1550 Linden Drive, UW–Madison