

IN CONVERSATION WITH Lena Waithe

TUESDAY FEBRUARY 13

UNION SOUTH, VARSITY HALL
7PM-9PM

Distinguished
Lecture Series

Wisconsin Union Directorate

Lena Waithe is an Emmy-award winning screenwriter, producer, and actress who is able to tap into emerging cultural sensibilities with a sharp wit, speaking to myriad experiences from her unique perspective and challenging audiences to think outside of conventional norms. She is best known for her work on Master of None (2015), Notorious (2009), Dear White People (2014), The Chi (2018), Step Sisters (2018), and Ready Player One (2018). As the 2018 Black History Month Keynote, Waithe will touch on her own acts of resistance and resilience as a Black Queer Womyn Creative in the industry and growing up next door on the South side of Chicago.

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Union South- Varsity Hall is wheelchair accessible. If you need other accommodations, please contact BCC@wisc.edu, or call 608-262-2014.
